Chrysler de Mexico Retail Sales Increased 2.3 Percent During May 2013

- FIAT posted 15 percent sales gain
- Jeep® Grand Cherokee set sales record with 667 units sold; best sales for the month of May
- Dodge Avenger sales rose 28 percent compared with May 2012

May 31, 2013, Mexico City - Today, Chrysler de Mexico reported May 2013 sales of 8,003 units, representing an increase in retail sales of 2.3 percent compared with sales in May 2012. Chrysler de Mexico total sales decreased by 2.9 percent due to a decline in fleet sales.

"Chrysler de Mexico keeps its retail sales growth trend as a result of our new product launches, starting with the Jeep® Grand Cherokee, which has just arrived in dealerships and posted a sales increase of 76 percent. Also, the new and innovative FIAT products have had positive acceptance among the Mexican market," said Bruno Cattori, President & CEO Chrysler de Mexico. "This month the Dodge brand sales increased by 14 percent, becoming a key player in our sales by offering best-in-class products, such as the Dodge Dart, which has raised the bar in its segment with class-leading, state-of-the-art technology, as well as the Dodge Journey, which continues as number one in the CUV segment in our market."

Chrysler Brand

Chrysler brand sold 310 units, led by the Chrysler Town & Country selling 236 units in May 2013.
