The Chrysler Brand: Distinctive Designs, Craftsmanship and Innovative Features Customers Appreciate, all at an Extraordinary Value

All-new 2015 Chrysler 200 delivers an exceptional driving experience, exquisite style inside and out and technology customers appreciate, all for a starting U.S. Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price of just $21,700

- All-new 2015 Chrysler 200 continues the Chrysler brand legacy with a beautifully-designed and crafted mid-size sedan
- The all-new 200 delivers customers state-of-the-art technology not typically found in the segment, such as the segment-exclusive nine-speed automatic transmission, and easy-to-use technology drivers will value such as the largest-in-the-segment 8.4-inch Uconnect media center and the full-color driver information display instrument cluster

March 21, 2014, Auburn Hills, Mich. - For more than 80 years the Chrysler brand has delighted customers with distinctive designs, stunning craftsmanship and innovative, leading-edge technology, all at an extraordinary value. The premium for the Chrysler brand is in the product, not the price.

In 2012, the Chrysler brand recorded its best annual sales since 2008 with 307,967 units sold. The 200 sedan set an annual sales record in 2012 with 125,476 units sold. It was the best-selling Chrysler brand vehicle as well as the best-selling car in the Company's lineup. The Chrysler 300 flagship sedan recorded its best annual sales since 2007 (70,747 units sold), while the Town & Country had its best year since 2010 with 111,744 minivans sold.

The all-new 2015 Chrysler 200 sedan enters the mid-size sedan segment by delivering drivers a beautiful, well-crafted, smart sedan with exceptional driving dynamics and is loaded with features that will surprise and delight both drivers and passengers – it's everything a customer wants at a price they can afford – starting at a U.S. Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price (MSRP) of $21,700 (excluding destination).

With class-leading and segment exclusive features, the all-new 2015 Chrysler 200 sedan charts a new course that will captivate drivers and passengers alike. The 2015 Chrysler 200 is the only mid-size sedan with a standard nine-speed automatic transmission, an available 8.4-inch touchscreen media center and 7-inch full-color driver information display instrument cluster, both the largest in the segment; the most available safety and security features with 60, including the available ParkSense Parallel/Perpendicular Park Assist system and an electronic parking brake with SafeHold; a best-in-class horsepower available Pentastar V-6 engine that produces 295 horsepower and 262 lb.-ft. of torque, while improving fuel economy 7 percent compared with the outgoing model and a class-leading all-wheel drive system with rear axle disconnect for improved fuel efficiency.

The 2015 Chrysler 200 competes in the mid-size sedan segment, the largest car segment in North America, where roughly one in six sales are a mid-size sedan, averaging more than 2 million sales a year.

The all-new 2015 Chrysler 200 is available in four different models in the United States and will arrive in volume in dealer showrooms in the second quarter 2014. Customers can choose from the 2015 Chrysler 200 LX, Chrysler 200 Limited, Chrysler 200S or the premium Chrysler 200C model. The 200 is designed, engineering and built in Michigan. Chrysler Group's newly improved Sterling Heights (Mich.) Assembly Plant is the home of the 2015 Chrysler 200.
