May 1, 2014, Mexico City - Today, Chrysler de Mexico announced sales of 6,470 units in April 2014.

"The excellent results of the Jeep® brand reflect the preference of the customers in our market. The Jeep Grand Cherokee, our most-awarded SUV, and the iconic Jeep Wrangler continue their positive sales trend. Jeep Cherokee, still in its launch phase, posted excellent results of 468 units," said Bruno Cattori, President & CEO of Chrysler de Mexico. "The Dodge brand, which last month celebrated its 100th anniversary, is focused on manufacturing high-performance vehicles with the most powerful engines and trend-setting designs. Two of its most iconic muscle cars, Dodge Challenger and Dodge Charger, debuted at the 2014 New York International Auto Show. In the Mexican market, the Dodge Challenger has shown a constant increase in sales for the last four months.

"April marked a milestone for Chrysler de Mexico. We opened the World Class Manufacturing Academy in Saltillo, Coahuila, which is the second Academy for Chrysler Group LLC, but the first in Mexico. This shows the confidence the Company has in Chrysler de Mexico, in our people and how they want us to continue delivering world class products."
