September 3, 2014, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Chrysler Group LLC today reported U.S. sales of 198,379 units, a 20 percent increase compared with sales in August 2013 (165,552 units), and the group's best August sales since 2002.

The Chrysler, Jeep®, and Ram Truck brands each posted year-over-year sales gains in August compared with the same month a year ago. The Jeep brand's 49 percent increase was the largest sales gain of any Chrysler Group brand during August and its best ever sales in the month of August. Chrysler Group extended its streak of year-over-year sales gains to 53-consecutive months.

"Chrysler Group sales soared 20 percent last month resulting in our strongest August sales in 12 years" said Reid Bigland, Head of U.S. Sales. "Our Jeep brand continued its torrid sales pace recording its best August sales ever and our Ram Truck brand contributed with a massive 39 percent sales increase, both helping Chrysler Group achieve its 53rd-consecutive month of year-over-year sales growth"

Seven Chrysler Group vehicles set sales records in August, including best monthly sales ever by the Jeep Cherokee, Jeep Patriot and Dodge Journey. This was the Journey's seventh-consecutive sales record this year. The Jeep Wrangler, Dodge Dart, Chrysler Town & Country, and Ram Cargo Van each recorded their best ever sales in the month of August. The Jeep and Ram Truck brands logged the largest percentage sales gains of any Chrysler Group brands during the month. Sales of the all-new 2015 Chrysler 200 mid-size sedan were up 39 percent in August compared with the previous month of July.

Chrysler Group finished the month of August with a 64 days supply of inventory (471,930 units). U.S. industry sales figures for August are internally projected at an estimated 17.4 million units Seasonally Adjusted Annual Rate (SAAR).

Jeep® Brand

Jeep brand sales were up 49 percent, the brand's best ever sales in the month of August and the second best sales month so far this year. The brand's 49 percent increase was the largest percentage sales gain of any Chrysler Group brand for the month. The Jeep brand has set a sales record in each month this year, including the all-time sales record in May. The all-new Jeep Cherokee and the Jeep Patriot each turned in their best monthly sales ever. The Patriot's 27 percent sales gain was the largest percentage year-over-year sales increase of any Jeep brand model in August. The Jeep Wrangler logged its best ever sales for the month of August. Wrangler sales of 17,988 units were second only to the model's all-time record set in May of this year. Grand Cherokee sales were up 4 percent for its best August sales since 2003.

Ram Truck Brand

The Ram pickup truck logged its best August sales since 2003. Sales of the Ram pickup were up 33 percent in August, its 52nd-consecutive month of year-over-year sales gains. Ram Light Duty sales increased 31 percent in August while Ram Heavy Duty pickups were up 39 percent.
