

Uconnect® Receives ‘Infotainment of the Year’ Award from Digital Trends

April 28, 2015, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Uconnect – the system found inside the FCA US vehicle line-up – has earned the “Infotainment of the Year” award from Digital Trends.

“Receiving this prestigious award from Digital Trends is a tribute to the team of hardworking engineers, designers and human machine interface experts who continue to evolve the Uconnect system, features and services,” said Joni Christensen, Head of Uconnect Marketing and Customer Experience, FCA US LLC. “The Uconnect team’s mission is to assist drivers and help keep them focused on the road.”

Ease of access is a top priority for the Uconnect system. Offering a variety of ways to control the systems allows drivers of all ages and skills to make the best use of Uconnect.

“No automaker has eased the learning curve for all the digital features of a new car better than FCA with its Uconnect system,” wrote Nick Jaynes, Automotive Editor at Digital Trends.

“With Uconnect, FCA avoided the pitfalls of option overload and distilled the essentials of infotainment into one handsome, accessible package,” Jaynes added. “We love Uconnect not only for its big, 8.4-inch touch screen, few hardwired buttons and responsiveness, but also for its clean, but not overly sterile, interface.”
