August 3, 2015, Mexico City - FCA México today reported its seventh consecutive month of sales gains with 9,009 units, a 24 percent increase compared with sales in July 2014; best July since 2009 and best sales month of the year.

"We continue our positive trend, seven consecutive months of sales gains, thanks to our ever-increasing, wide-range product portfolio, including the Ram 700, which established a sales record last month, capturing more than 40 percent of its segment," said Bruno Cattori, President and CEO of FCA México. "Last month, we unveiled the new Mitsubishi L200, a vehicle that has had great acceptance for both personal and commercial use during its first sales month thanks to its unique features, such as best-in-class durability, class-leading interior length and class-leading turning radius."

Alfa Romeo

Alfa Romeo brand reported positive sales of 23 units; best July in its history.

Chrysler

Chrysler brand posted sales of 304 units. Since its introduction, Chrysler 300 sales have risen.

Dodge

Dodge brand reported sales of 2,889 units; up 39 percent versus previous year. The brand experienced its best sales month of 2015, boosted primarily by sales of Dodge Attitude, which reported 1,452 units sold; best sales in its history. The Dodge Challenger turned in its best July sales since 2009 with a 30 percent year-over-year sales gain. Another Dodge vehicle with positive results is the Dodge Charger, which reported its best sales month of the year. Sales of the Dodge Durango and Dodge Journey were up 31 percent and 2 percent respectively.

Last month, Strategic Vision's 20th annual Total Quality Index™ awarded Dodge Charger, Dodge Durango and Dodge Challenger.

FIAT
