May 3, 2017, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Churchill Downs® and the Kentucky Derby® are steeped in tradition and the Ram Truck brand will again be part of the festivities at this year's 143rd running of the Kentucky Derby, Saturday, May 6.

In recognition of eight years as the "Official Truck" of Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Derby and exclusive automotive partner, Ram Truck will award the trainer of the winning horse a one-of-a-kind special 143rd Kentucky Derby edition Ram 2500 Limited truck.

"Ram trucks are the perfect match for horse owners, trainers and riders, and partnering with America's premiere racing events is a great way to demonstrate our commitment to these customers," said Mike Manley, Head of Ram Brand, FCA – Global. "With the longest-lasting pickup trucks on the market and class-leading capabilities, Ram trucks are well-deserving of the 'Official Truck of Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Derby' status."

The brand's sponsorship includes immersing fans attending the races, and those watching the festivities on TV, in a total Ram Truck brand experience. Fans will see on-site truck displays, video board integrations, backcountry and trackside signage throughout Churchill Downs, and branding on gate crew staff uniforms and on the clothing of jockeys Javier Castellano (Gunnevera), Brian Hernandez, Jr. (McCraken) and Joel Rosario (Practical Joke). In addition, Ram television spots will run during the NBC network telecast and there will be Derby posts on Ram social channels. Fans can follow the content and join the conversation at hashtag #RamDerby.

On Friday and Saturday mornings, Ram ProMaster vans will transport the traditional Kentucky Oaks "Lilies Garland" (Friday) and Derby "Roses Garland" (Saturday), to be worn by each day's winning horses, and the winning jockeys' bouquets to Churchill Downs from the Kroger store where the large floral arrangements are created each year. The rose garland is crafted with Freedom Roses and the lily garland is crafted with Stargazer Lilies.

For the first time, Ram has created a custom Derby edition Ram 2500 Limited and will award the one-of-a-kind truck to the trainer of the Thoroughbred who wins the 143rd Kentucky Derby. The exterior of this unique Brilliant Black truck includes blue Kentucky Derby 143rd logos on the left and right rear panels and a hand-painted Kentucky Derby rose badge on the front grille.

Also new this year, a pink-wrapped Ram 3500 Limited dually will lead the Kentucky Oaks Survivors Parade taking place Friday, May 5. Now in its ninth year, the parade is a march of breast and ovarian cancer survivors on the Churchill Downs' historic racetrack. Prior to the 143rd running of the Longines Kentucky Oaks race, 143 survivors will walk in the parade led by the pink Ram truck.

On-site truck displays

Ram will have special Derby-themed truck displays and branded giveaway items at multiple locations throughout the Churchill Downs grounds. Two of the displays will include unique Ram Truck Kentucky Derby floral displays where race fans will have the opportunity to have commemorative souvenir pictures taken so they can share their Derby experience with friends and family.

Signage

Strategically placed posters and signs throughout the Churchill Downs stable area feature specially crafted "Dominate the Field" messages, reminding race fans of the dedication, unrelenting tenacity, stamina and years of hard work it takes to earn the glory of making it to the Kentucky Derby.

Ram will also run videos and social media messaging on Churchill Down's "Big Board," the largest video board in an outdoor arena capable of displaying advanced 4K ultra-high definition technology.

Television Spots

Four 30-second Ram television ads – three from the brand's "Long Live" campaign with new Churchill Downs footage added – and a number of branded integrations will air May 6 during NBC's Kentucky Derby coverage. Set to a custom recording and arrangement of Bob Dylan's song "Forever Young," the "Long Live" spots salute tenacity, valor, courage, strength, community and tradition, values shared by those who depend on Ram trucks every day and those who work hard to make it to Churchill Downs. All spots end with "America's Longest-lasting Pickups," the brand's "Guts. Glory. Ram." tagline and the Kentucky Derby logo highlighting Ram as the official truck of Churchill Downs and the Derby.

The ads were created in partnership with full-service advertising agency Doner and can be seen on the Ram YouTube channel Saturday evening. In addition, NBC will run a custom co-branded vignette during its Derby coverage that extends these messages.
