January 21, 2022, Auburn Hills, Mich. - For the 19th year, the Jeep® brand is returning to Aspen's Buttermilk Mountain as the exclusive automotive sponsor of the world's premier winter action sports event, X Games. The partnership will include broadcast, linear, social, digital and experiential extensions and will again feature the "Jeep® Presents: X Games Aspen Best in Snow" title honoring one of the X Games' top athletes.

"As we mark nearly 20 years as the official automotive partner of the X Games, this highly anticipated winter event has provided an authentic venue for the Jeep brand to engage with sports and like-minded outdoor enthusiasts who enjoy action and adventure," said Jim Morrison, vice president and head of Jeep North America. "Our shared consumer audience has an unyielding passion for adventure that fuels their lifestyle and is one that cannot be defined by boundaries."

While on the Jeep brand activation site, attendees can also register for a chance to win $100,000 toward a new Jeep vehicle, spin-to-win for awesome prizes on site, and participate in a vehicle demo for a Jeep brand gift that also enters the person into a drawing for a $400 Rossignol gift card, two will be given away each day for anyone who checks in and takes a vehicle demo.

On Sunday, January 23, X Games Aspen host Jack Mitrani will announce the "Jeep® Presents: X Games Best in Snow" title (determined by X Games panel), honoring one of the event's best athletes during this year's competition in a three-minute live segment. During the live broadcast, X Games hosts will recap the "Best in Snow" title front-runners to promote the competition. Fans can also follow the competitor highlights across the X Games Facebook and Instagram stories. On Sunday, one athlete will be recognized as "Best in Snow" and will receive a Jeep Golden Grille X Games Award noting the honor.

The Jeep brand will have eight vehicles on site of the X Games, from the Slopestyle Course, to the Main Entrance and Awards Stage, to the Jeep Hut/Activation Site:
