

Contact: Jodi Tinson

Markett, Anna

Senior Vice President, Supply Chain - Stellantis North America

Anna Markett was named senior vice president, supply chain, Stellantis North America in August 2022. In this role, she is responsible for instilling and executing the company's Dare Forward 2030 plan, including long-range planning, demand planning, production planning, order to delivery, supplier capacity, inbound/outbound logistics and managing the consistent flow of parts into the company's 35 plants in North America.

Markett joined the company in 2000 and has worked her way through leadership roles in both supply chain and manufacturing. In 2022, she was named a recipient of the Women in Supply Chain award by Supply & Demand Chain Executive.

Her work experience and academic background include:

- 2022 – current, Senior Vice President, Supply Chain, Stellantis North America
- 2021, Vice President, North America Supply
- 2020, Director, Global Supply Chain Management Process and Methods/North American Supplier Delivery Risk Management Lead, FCA US LLC
- 2018, Head of Supplier Delivery Risk Management
- 2017, Senior Manager, World Class Manufacturing Logistics
- 2016, Senior Manager, Material Logistics, Windsor Assembly
- 2014, Senior Manager, Material Logistics, Mack Engine Plant
- 2014, Terminal Manager, Canadian Logistics Division
- 2011, Inventory Control Manager, Windsor Assembly Plant
- 2010, Logistics Launch Manager
- 2010, Logistics Analyst Assembly/Powertrain
- 2008, Management Supervisor, Supply Risk Delivery, Chrysler LLC
- 2006, Scheduling Supervisor, Windsor Assembly, DaimlerChrysler
- 2004, Production Control, Windsor Assembly Plant
- 2000, Production Operator, Windsor Assembly Plant

Markett has a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Windsor.

-###-

Additional information and news from Stellantis are available at: <https://media.stellantisnorthamerica.com>