

Contact: Diane Morgan

Thompson, Matt
Senior Vice President, U.S. Retail Sales, Stellantis North America

Matt Thompson was appointed senior vice president of U.S. retail sales in May 2024. In his role, Thompson oversees U.S. sales planning and incentives, retail sales promotions, dealer relations and field operations in support of the company's brands.

A 25-year veteran of the company, Thompson has spent the majority of his career working alongside the dealer network in various assignments throughout the U.S., including serving in multiple roles in the northeast and midwest business centers.

Most recently, Thompson served as vice president of sales planning and incentives (2013-2024).

His work background includes:

- 2024-current, Senior Vice President, U.S. Retail Sales, Stellantis North America
- 2013-2024, Vice President, Sales Planning and Incentives, Stellantis North America
- 2011-2013, Head of Jeep Operations, Chrysler LLC
- 2011, Senior Manager, U.S. Retail Incentives, Chrysler LLC
- 2010-2011, Senior Sales Manager, Northeast Business Center, Chrysler LLC
- 2009-2010, Senior Marketing Manager, Midwest Business Center, Chrysler LLC
- 1998-2009, multiple sales and marketing organization positions, Chrysler LLC

Thompson received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hamline University in Minnesota. He resides in Oxford, Michigan.

7/1/2024

-###-

Additional information and news from Stellantis are available at: <https://media.stellantisnorthamerica.com>