September 25, 2024, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Chrysler is welcoming back a member of the brand's minivan family, adding the 2025 Chrysler Voyager to its retail lineup as a budget-friendly option under $40,000 with a starting U.S. manufacturer's suggested retail price (MSRP) of $39,995 (excluding destination charge).

The return of the Chrysler Voyager to the retail market provides customers with an array of Chrysler minivan choices, ranging from the entry-level Voyager to the premium 2025 Chrysler Pacifica Pinnacle, featuring the most luxurious interior in its class. The multi-energy minivan lineup includes an electrified option in the 2025 Chrysler Pacifica Plug-in Hybrid, still the first and only plug-in hybrid minivan, and Pacifica gasoline-powered front-wheel and all-wheel-drive configurations.

"The 2025 Chrysler Voyager offers customers a well-equipped, budget-conscious minivan and reinforces our brand's commitment to delivering choices in the segment Stellantis created more than 40 years ago and continues to lead," said Chris Feuell, Chrysler brand CEO – Stellantis. "We've added many comfort, technology-focused and safety features as standard equipment on Chrysler Voyager, including standard Stow 'n Go seating, making the Voyager an attractive, value-packed option within the Chrysler family of minivans."

The 2025 Chrysler Voyager is now open for orders, with vehicles scheduled to arrive at dealerships in the fourth quarter.

A few features new-as-standard on the 2025 Chrysler Voyager in its reintroduction to the brand's retail lineup include:

- 10.1-inch Uconnect 5 touchscreen, delivering a range of connected services, including ability to connect two phones simultaneously with Bluetooth, Amazon Alexa voice controls and more
- 7-inch digital cluster display
- Super Console with covered and second-row accessible storage
- Black Caprice leatherette seats trimmed in Light Diesel stitching
- Blind-spot Monitoring with Rear Cross Path detection
- Rear Park Assist
- Adaptive cruise control
- Driver seat memory
- Three-zone auto HVAC controls
- Passenger four-way manual seats
- Second-row sunshades
- Enabled lifetime connected services, including SOS calls, SiriusXM Guardian Assistance, theft alarm and more, and trial connected services, including navigation and vehicle assistance

The 2025 Chrysler Voyager arrives loaded with additional key standard content, including the Stow 'n Go seating system, featuring industry-exclusive second-row Stow 'n Go, as well as third-row Stow 'n Go, power sliding doors and liftgate, driver eight-way power seats and heated front seats and steering wheel. Also standard is seven passenger seating, wireless Android Auto and Apple CarPlay, integrated hands-free Bluetooth and phone command, six-speaker audio system, remote start, active noise cancellation and more. Voyager offers more than 32 cubic feet of interior cargo volume.

Chrysler Voyager carries its own unique look and feel within the 2025 Chrysler minivan lineup, with classic front and rear exterior styling that distinguishes the Voyager from the Chrysler Pacifica. The Voyager rolls on 17-inch aluminum wheels and features automatic headlamps and foglamps, as well as an acoustic windshield. Powered by the award-winning 3.6-liter Pentastar V-6 engine paired with a segment-exclusive TorqueFlite nine-speed automatic transmission, Voyager delivers 287 horsepower and 262 lb.-ft. of torque.

Additional standard safety features include seven airbags, daytime running lights, electronic stability control, brake assist, Child Seat Anchor System (LATCH), ParkView rear backup camera and more.

The 2025 Chrysler Voyager will be available only in the Voyager LX trim level, with a choice of three exterior colors: Red Hot, Diamond Black and Bright White.

Chrysler Brand

The Chrysler brand has delighted customers with distinctive designs, craftsmanship, and advanced innovation and technology since the company was founded in 1925. Chrysler continues to build on that nearly 100-year legacy of creating ingenious products and technologies for mainstream customers, moving forward on an electrified transformation that will launch the brand's first battery-electric vehicle in 2025 and an all-electric portfolio in 2028.

The Chrysler Pacifica continues to reinvent the minivan, a segment Chrysler created 40 years ago. The Chrysler Pacifica Plug-in Hybrid symbolizes the brand's electrification evolution, representing the first electrified minivan in the segment and achieving 82 MPGe, an all-electric range of 32 miles and a total range of 520 miles. Chrysler Pacifica delivers the most standard safety features and most advanced available all-wheel-drive system in its class and is also the most awarded minivan over the last seven years with more than 175 honors and industry accolades since its introduction as a minivan.
