Tickets are available for event to honor Lee Iacocca, Jay Leno, Richard Petty and Virgil Exner

June 20, 2010, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Going once, going twice, SOLD! It'll be an automobile enthusiast's dream come true as guests of the inaugural Walter P. Chrysler Legacy Gala will have an opportunity to bid on extraordinary experiences - including a day with Richard Petty and a private tour of Jay Leno's Big Dog Garage - in silent and live auctions during the Saturday, July 24 event.

Held at the Walter P. Chrysler Museum, in Auburn Hills, the 7:00 - 11:00 p.m. Legacy Gala will celebrate 85 years of Chrysler heritage and honor four automotive and entertainment icons - who will all be in attendance - with the Walter P. Chrysler Legacy Award: Former Chrysler Chairman and CEO Lee Iacocca; Tonight Show Host and Car Collector Jay Leno; and NASCAR Champion Richard Petty. Former Chrysler Design Chief Virgil Exner will be inducted posthumously, represented by his son Virgil Exner, Jr.

A limited number of gala tickets are available for public purchase online at www.wpchryslermuseum.org and by phone at 800-987-9807. Gala tickets, benefiting the nonprofit Museum, are $500 per person, a significant portion of which is tax-deductible.

The silent and live auctions are just one highlight of an amazing event that will begin with a strolling dinner throughout the Museum's three floors and feature the inaugural Walter P. Chrysler Legacy Circle induction ceremony of Iacocca, Leno, Petty and Exner; a full-length performance donated by Jay Leno and a dessert and coffee afterglow.

Among the particularly remarkable items up for auction, with proceeds benefiting the Museum, are:

- A Day with Richard Petty -hold court with "The King," in North Carolina, and tour Petty's Garage; visit the Richard Petty Museum with exhibits spotlighting his career; get a behind-the-scenes look at Richard Petty Motorsports and four of NASCAR's most popular teams and drivers: Kasey Kahne, AJ Allmendinger, Elliott Sadler and Paul Menard; and visit Victory Junction Gang Camp, serving children with serious illnesses on 84 acres of land donated by Richard and Lynda Petty.
